

ALASKA ADDICTION MEDICINE FELLOWSHIP

2027-2028 BENEFITS SUMMARY

Updated May 1, 2026

Approximate PGY-4 Salary	$87,500.00 Based on salaries for academic year 2026-2027.
Moving Assistance	Up to $5,000. In compliance with federal regulation, this is taxable income.
Leave	Fellows are granted an annual bank of 25 days of leave
Bereavement Leave	Up to 24 hours of bereavement leave immediate family members, and up to 40 hours in the event of caregiver's spouse, domestic partner, or child.
CME Time	5 working days per 12-months of fellowship.
CME Reimbursement	$2,500.00 to be used over 12-month fellowship.
Professional Memberships	Memberships provided to the American Society of Addiction Medicine and the American Society of Addiction Medicine.
Computer Access	Remote access to email, hospital and clinic records and electronic resources, laptop provided.
Library and Electronic Resources	Electronic access to more than 2,300 eJournals and 1,200 eBooks through the University of Washington.
Malpractice Insurance	Provided, including "tail" insurance.
Medical, Vision, Dental, Life, Disability Insurance, Retirement	Refer to Benefits At A Glance.
Moonlighting	Opportunities available throughout Alaska for fellows in good standing.
Recreation	Fully equipped in-house exercise gym. (location Providence Hospital Campus)
Rural Rotations	Costs for rural travel and housing at rural sites will be provided.
Miscellaneous	Parking at hospital and clinic provided.